

World Food
Programme

Flood event summary

08, Jan 2020

Event Name	Indonesia, Jakarta, Floods and landslides, January 2020
Date Published	2020-01-03T13:00:00+0100
Headline	Heavy rainfall are affecting Jakarta Metropolitan Area and parts of West Java and Banten Provinces since 31 December 2019, triggering floods and causing several landslides that have resulted in casualties and damage.
Description	The Indonesian National Board for Disaster Management (BNPB) reports, as of 3 January, 43 fatalities. In addition, the ASEAN Coordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance on Disaster Management (AHA) Centre also reports an estimated 21,900 people displaced across West, Central, East, and South Jakarta Regencies. The Indonesian authorities are continuing to evacuate affected people as well as providing humanitarian response. Officials have set up health posts to provide food, clean water and medical support.
GDACS severity score	3.0
GDACS severity legend	between 100 and 1,000 dead and/or 80,000 and 800,000 displaced
GDACS severity classification	Orange
Source	https://erccportal.jrc.ec.europa.eu/ECHO-Flash/ECHO-Flash-List/yy/2020/mm/1